

ABM Team Members successfully complete IOSH training

Today we celebrate our ABM Team Members who have successfully completed IOSH training and received their certificates:

IOSH Managing course - Andrew Ellis, Jon O'Brien and Stephen Fawcett part of the Manchester Airport team.

IOSH Working Safely - Michael Shaw, Darren Swindells, Daniel Ogden, Leah Singh, Gary waring & Manoj Krishna Chellingi.

Chris Pooley, Head of QHSE Aviation, said "It was great delivering to the teams. Thank you all, it was fantastic to see increasing enthusiasm as you gained further understanding as to why health and safety is important part of your roles. Well done to all".

A huge congratulations to the team!
