

ABM Team Members Win at the Lexicon Retail Awards 2023

ABM Team members were celebrated at the Lexicon Retail Awards in February 2023. Here we celebrate those team members:

Bom Rai-Dock Master – 12 years' service in The Lexicon SC outstanding team member and always goes above and beyond

Mark Martins- outstanding in support, stepping up and always being willing to help in all roles within team

Daniel Evry – Cleaning team member, steps up to support and always with a smile- no job too much

Mark Martins – Security Patrol Officer

Mark has come from a non-security background ,he has worked hard to learn security systems , has embraced the training, and support that ABM provides, is a brilliant team player, dedicated in his role, always has a smile no request is too much ,Mark has covered all roles within security team and is a big asset to us. His progression and hard work have not gone unnoticed ,

Mark has supported the team and is greatly appreciated , during October/November he stepped up showing his dedication ,embracing every challenge we faced, for this we like to recognise Mark as hard-working dedicated Team member – Well done Mark – we greatly appreciate you ... Keep smiling

Mr Bom Rai – Dock Master

Bom has been with us for a long time 12years service , we thank you for that dedication , from a military background Bom brings every day his professional polite manner and fantastic work ethic, he is a major asset , during the years Bom has been here several people have been trained with him as patrol officers or dock hands they have had the privilege to gain valuable work ethics.

It's an honour to have Bom in our team, everyday a happy smile no matter how cold it is on the Dock ,he is there in all weather ensuring the delivery get to their locations.

We appreciate you hard work Thank you

Daniel Evry – Cleaning Operative

Daniel joined the team and has always been very keen to learn more skills and progress , he has worked hard and learnt many different skills , using the ABM training Daniel has First Aider training, Mobile access equipment training -enabling him to do high level work, he has shown how adaptable he is and become very much a valuable key member of the cleaning operation . Through his hard work and dedication Dan has really shone out this year and this has not gone unnoticed ,he also happy willing to work and willing to adapt to anything we need and supports all the team.
