

Announcing the appointment of Niall Partridge as UK&I Finance Director from 1 October 2023.

Niall is promoted from his present role as Finance Director for Ireland to this new position which demonstrates the strength of talent we have within the business.

Niall has worked for ABM Ireland for more than four years and has extensive international finance experience, having previously worked across Europe. Niall's M&A experience will also stand us in good stead as we evolve and grow our business. He has worked on many integrations of businesses in transition, specialising in financial process improvement in back-office functionality and advocating technology as an enabler, in supporting profitable sustainable growth.

Niall has a passion for ensuring that finance is recognised as a key partner within the business. He is a progressive leader, embracing technology as a supportive resource for all our team members across all the UK&I industry groups.
